Poonhill Trekking is a famous trekking route in the Annapurna region that leads to the vantage point, Poon Hill from where you get to witness excellent sunrise along with western Himalayan mountains. During the Poon Hill Trek, the trail passes through picturesque villages and lush forests of rhododendron, fir, juniper, oak, etc. The quick accessibility and easy terrain make Ghorepani Poonhill Trek an ideal option for beginner trekkers. If you are someone thinking to begin your great Himalayan escape then go for this trek. The outstanding landscape, breath-taking views of the Himalayas, unique blend of culture, and wild verdant forests altogether make Poonhill Trek 9 Days a special retreat.

With a scenic drive from Pokhara, you reach the starting point of the trek, Nayapul. From here, trekking through dense forests and small villages like Ulleri, you reach Ghorepani. It is a lovely village surrounded by beautiful rhododendron forests, hills, and snow-capped mountains. Just above these villages is Poon Hill. To acclimatize your body and witness glorious sunrise, you hike to this place, and further, drop down to Ghorepani. From here onwards, the trail gradually descends through dense forests and villages.

Poonhill Trekking route goes through the Annapurna Conservation Area, which is home to hundreds of flora and fauna. This part of the Annapurna region is resided by many people from several different communities like Brahmins, Gurungs, Magars, Thakali, etc. You will get to look into their daily lifestyle and interact with them. Become part of our Poonhill Trek 9 Days to have the most memorable trip of your life. To know more about the package, you can read our useful information section or get in touch with us.
