Upper Dolpo Trek is a mystical journey in the far-western part of Nepal that leads to one of the remotest parts of the Himalayas. You will get to the travers unspoiled part of Nepal. Upper Dolpo Trekking is the best way to take yourself away from the daily hustle of your life and spend some time in the tranquil nature. During Upper Dolpo Trek 27 Days, you will get to see the rich culture and tradition of the locals. As this part of Nepal is highly influenced by the Tibetans, you will get to see the cultural similarity. Moreover, you will visit ancient monasteries and stupas on the way.

Upper Dolpo Trek is closed for foreign visitors for a very long period of time. The exceptional beauty of the region has been beautifully described in the Snow Leopard, a lovely book written by Peter Mathesons and the Oscar-nominated movie, Himalaya/Caravan. Even though the region is now open for trekkers, the Nepal government has enforced special permits that you need to get before traveling here. And, these permits are very expensive, which controls the tourist flow in the region.
