Upper Mustang Trek is an adventurous journey that leads to the last forbidden kingdom, Lo Manthang. Trekking to Upper Mustang was closed until 1990 for foreigners. Upper Mustang Trekking lets you traverse the Buddhist kingdom closely tied with Tibetan culture, language, and practices. As Upper Mustang is one of the remotest parts of Nepal, the culture and nature here is well preserved. The region is not developed and still practices the ancient way of living.

Upper Mustang Trek 18 Days allows you to see the prettiest barren landscape, unique rocks, and snow-capped Himalaya mountains like Mt. Annapurna (8,091 m), Mt. Dhaulagiri (8,167 m), Mt. Nilgiri (7,061 m), Tilicho Peak (7,134 m), Bhrikuti Peak (6,364 m), etc. Likewise, you get to experience the lifestyle of the locals. The trail is extremely adventurous and involves passes and dense forests. To know about the Upper Mustang Trek cost or any other information, please contact us anytime.
